God in the New Pedagogy

God dwells in the hearts of all who live in His grace. The spirituality of Family Love nurtures and develops the authenticity of the person. Authenticity is the fruit of the "Grace of Unity".

It is the "Grace of Unity" both intrapersonal and interpersonal that prepares the dwelling place for God in every person. Such an experience builds up the bond of union and love between God and man

The parents play a vital role in providing such a positive experience of unity and love. Parents lead the children to an open heart to an ever fuller encounter with the Lord. This experience of the Lord that lives within each one enhances one's love for God, and his values. 'Culture of Discipline' has its base on such an experience, and the fruit there of.

The young grow in spirituality through a process that helps them to discover and love daily life as a new reality in which God works as a Father.

Every gesture of love from the parents shapes and builds up a "God-enlightened space" in every child. Such a space in the young is the oasis that provides the source for acquiring the 'culture of discipline'.

The best gift the parents can give their children is their couple union and couple love

The parents constantly remind the children of the living presence of God in each one, "God sees you! God loves you". This awareness provides inspirations that guide the formation of strong and genuine convictions, which form the strongest pillar on which the 'New Pedagogy' rests.

The daily reading of the 'Word of God' from the scriptures and reflecting on it, lead the family to closer intimacy with the Lord. These moments of prayer provide the cementing factor in the formation and building up of one's character.

Captain Speaks... (Contd.)

This process of building up the 'culture of discipline' initiated by the parents in the family is taken forward in the school by the educators.

Education enhances and perfects the quality of life

The school continues to awaken the "Good News" implanted in every individual, irrespective of any particular religion. This "Good News" is further spelt out in the various scriptures. It consists of: 'God is Love', 'God is Just', 'God is Truth', 'we are children of God', and 'He loves us all', and here all are equal too. Education continues to deepen this awareness in the students. The joy of the experience of the "Good News" in oneself and others is cause for Evangelization- sharing of the experience of the "Good News".

Spirituality in the lives of the young is nourished by the process whereby they transform their daily experience of life into the experience of the "Good News" by force of faith

When students become aware of the presence of God in their lives, they live in the presence of God. When the school has succeeded in providing opportunities for the students to witness the active presence of God in others, education moves towards the whole-person paradigm in education. Solidarity projects based on the "Good News" of the scriptures bring the young closer to each other and to God.

Faith without good works is dead. Therefore, the school and the family encourage the students to reach out to others, especially those in need. When students are part of such social projects, they acquire a new mind set where helping those in need become their second nature.

When they see God in their neighbour, they become loving and lovable

When God sees such young people, He cannot but utter those consoling and comforting words: "You are unique. You are my well-beloved child. Come and share the eternal bliss with Me"

When God in me leaps for joy when I discover the God in my neighbor, and in the creation around me, then I grow in grace. The Grace of Unity reaches its zenith!

Religious Animation Program (RAP)

Convent: CSST Sisters, Bangalore
Program: Building up CSST School Culture
Dates: 12th and 13th January, 2017
Resource Person: Fr. Joe Arimpoor, sdb
Total Participants: 23 Sisters

The questions that the group is trying to answer:

Does the culture of an organisation undergo change with time and space?

- > Is there a culture on earth that is perfect?
- > What are the core elements of a culture?
- > How is culture expressed in the life and behaviour of people?

These are the questions that the Sisters were dealing with in their group work.

Their insights....

Every culture is in its journey from α (alpha) to Ω (omega).

Perfect culture is not of this world and yet there is a continuous quest to make a culture more perfect.

The enlightened members, especially the young radicals identify the dissonant notes of any given culture.

The music goes on perfecting its harmony towards the symphonic master-piece.

The enlightened leaders takes on the dissonant notes and brings in harmony by introducing changes based on the message and values of the Scriptures

Religious Animation Program (RAP)

Convent: FCC Superiors, Delhi
Program: Central Tasks of a Religious Superior
Dates: 14th January, 2017
Resource Person: Fr. Joe Arimpoor, sdb
Total Participants: 28 Superiors

Prioritizing and focusing on the central tasks of a Superior of a Religious Community requires mastery of Knowledge and Skills, and above all Self-Mastery.

CAN YOU WALK THE TALK?

A participant to the Resource Person:

Q. "How does a Superior get power to influence and lead the members?"

A. "One needs to enjoy certain amount of ascendancy over the members.
 This ascendancy may be looked at from different perspectives:

Experience

Accumulated knowledge and enhanced wisdom that make one prudent and capable to lead

Professional

Well-informed by way of knowledge, and adequate skill-set appropriate for the present times to influence and guide the members

Moral

A Principle-Centred Leadership

Spiritual

- > Reading and Reflecting on the Word of God
- > Intimacy with the Lord in prayer
- > Getting enlightened from a Spiritual Leader"
